

Austin Police Retirement System

Announcement 9/1/2021

The Austin Police Retirement System (APRS) is pleased to announce that Tyler Link has joined the full-time staff of APRS in the position of Deputy Executive Director.

Tyler previously served on the APRS Board of Trustees for five years as an elected active member Trustee and was elected by the Board to the role of Board Chair during his last two years. During his time on the Board he served on multiple committees including as the Chair of the Actuarial Review Committee.

For almost a decade, Tyler worked as a Police Officer for the Austin Police Department. His most recent role was as a Detective in the White Collar Crime Unit where he lead investigations related to public corruption, money laundering, corporate fraud, securities fraud, financial institution fraud, and bank fraud. Tyler received his Master of Science in Applied Criminology from Lamar University.

APRS Executive Director Pattie Featherston said, "We are all looking forward to the contributions Tyler can make in this position. He has been an avid learner since joining the Board. Moreover, he was at the helm and instrumental when APRS successfully passed legislation this year that restored the actuarial funding security of the System."

The Austin Police Retirement System manages assets held in trust of over $1 Billion and delivers service to almost 3,000 active and retired police officers and their beneficiaries.
